

2010 San Francisco New Living Expo April 30-May 2nd

21st Century Village for Health, Prosperity and Happiness

San Francisco (February, 2010) – In this erratic economy it's reassuring to know that the money you spend on your weekend entertainment will be going to sustainable living products, empowering speakers, cutting edge doctors, scientists, independent vendors and small business owners that are environmentally conscious and are giving back to the planet.

The New Living Expo is a signature event in the Bay Area, bringing together cutting edge Exhibitors, Speakers and Lecturers. Not only will attendees be able to mingle with like minded people, but they will be able to enhance their own self-growth by being with the experts connected with evolving human empowerment and global community.

Through panels, keynote addresses, free lectures, The New Living Expo will be addressing significant and timely topics such as; How to attain a better quality of life in this economy, How to create meaningful relationships during challenging times, How to apply transformative wisdom to create a better world, personal life, job and community. In addition the event will showcase how science has proved that there is a mind/body connection to healing and/or arresting many diseases.

The New Living Expo will have over 300 booths vendors selling mind, body and spirit enhancing gifts, books, and services that celebrate and improve your health and contribute to a friendly environment. Local artisans will be selling precious and semi-precious jewelry and a vast amount of handmade items. You will even find an array of earth friendly gifts for under $25.00.

See world renowned speakers, celebrities, scientists and doctors including; Mike Farrell, actor, director, political & social activist & best known for his portrayal of Capt. B.J. Hunnicutt in the Television series “MASH” & President of Death Penalty Focus, Amy Goodman, award-winning investigative journalist and host of “Democracy Now!,” Dan Millman, NY Times best-selling author “Wisdom of the Peaceful Warrior” & “Way of the Peaceful Warrior” that was adapted into a feature film, Paul Stamets, author & advocate of bioremediation & medicinal mushrooms, Caroline Casey, visionary activist astrologer, Dick Gregory, renown comedian who will use his wit and humor to advance his deep interest in civil rights and world peace and hundreds more. Join us as we participate in the transformation of our societies, consciously and in a sustainable uplifting way.

WHEN: Friday April 30th 3:00 - 10:00 pm
Saturday May 1st 10:00 - 9:00 pm
Sunday May 2nd 10:00 - 8:00 pm

WHERE: Concourse Exhibition Center, 635 8th St (at Brannan) San Francisco

TICKETS: General admission (includes workshops, panels, and lectures) One day pass - $15, 2-day pass $20, or $25 for a 3 day pass for the entire weekend. Free admission to anyone 20 years and under. Discount to Bart riders of $5, bring receipt.

AVAILABLE: You can purchase tickets for the expo, and special events by going to www.newlivingexpo.com or call the office 415-382-8300

PUBLIC INFO: 415-382-8300 * info@newlivingexpo.com * www.newlivingexpo.com

PR CONTACT: For more information or to arrange speaker interviews, please contact 415-382-8300